Call to Worship

Welcome

Psalm 92:1-3

It is good to praise the Lord and make music to your name, O Most High, proclaiming your love in the morning and your faithfulness at night, to the music of the ten-stringed lyre and the melody of the harp.

Confessing Our Sins Together

Psalm 107:17-20

Gracious Father,

Though we sometimes suffer under the hands of others, we confess that many of our distresses arise from our own sin and self-destruction. We avoid or overindulge in the good gifts you give us, and we run after the things you have kept from us for our own good. We often forget to come to you for help, but we thank you that you hear us when we do.

Jesus, thank you for perfectly enjoying the Father's good gifts with thankfulness on our behalf, for avoiding all sin, and for dying to pay the penalty for our failures. You have delivered us from destruction by your grace alone and not because we deserved it. Thank you.

Holy Spirit, help us to run after Jesus with gratitude for our deliverance, to avoid the many temptations to sin against you, against others, and against ourselves. Cause us instead to rejoice in, and point others to, the healing that is found in your word, for we ask it in Jesus' name, amen.

Rejoicing in Our Forgiveness

Psalm 13

How long, Lord? Will you forget me forever? How long will you hide your face from me? How long must I wrestle with my thought and day after day have sorrow in my heart? How long will my enemy triumph over me? Look on me and answer, Lord my God. Give light to my eyes, or I will sleep in death, and my enemy will say, "I have overcome him," and my foes will rejoice when I fall. But I trust in your unfailing love - my heart rejoices in your salvation. I will sing the Lord's praise, for he has been good to me.

Scripture Reading

Exodus 2.11-25 (English Standard Version)

¹¹ One day, when Moses had grown up, he went out to his people and looked on their burdens, and he saw an Egyptian beating a Hebrew, one of his people. ¹² He looked this way and that, and seeing no one, he struck down the Egyptian and hid him in the sand. ¹³ When he went out the next day, behold, two Hebrews were struggling together. And he said to the man in the wrong, “Why do you strike your companion?” ¹⁴ He answered, “Who made you a prince and a judge over us? Do you mean to kill me as you killed the Egyptian?” Then Moses was afraid, and thought, “Surely the thing is known.” ¹⁵ When Pharaoh heard of it, he sought to kill Moses. But Moses fled from Pharaoh and stayed in the land of Midian. And he sat down by a well.

¹⁶ Now the priest of Midian had seven daughters, and they came and drew water and filled the troughs to water their father’s flock. ¹⁷ The shepherds came and drove them away, but Moses stood up and saved them, and watered their flock. ¹⁸ When they came home to their father Reuel, he said, “How is it that you have come home so soon today?” ¹⁹ They said, “An Egyptian delivered us out of the hand of the shepherds and even drew water for us and watered the flock.” ²⁰ He said to his daughters, “Then where is he? Why have you left the man? Call him, that he may eat bread.” ²¹ And Moses was content to dwell with the man, and he gave Moses his daughter Zipporah. ²² She gave birth to a son, and he called his name Gershom, for he said, “I have been a sojourner in a foreign land.”

²³ During those many days the king of Egypt died, and the people of Israel groaned because of their slavery and cried out for help. Their cry for rescue from slavery came up to God. ²⁴ And God heard their groaning, and God remembered his covenant with Abraham, with Isaac, and with Jacob. ²⁵ God saw the people of Israel—and God knew.

Announcements:

Thanksgiving Boxes: Every year our Deacons collect specific food items and package them in boxes. These boxes are distributed to those in need in our community. If you would like to participate by bringing in food donations, please sign up on the sheet in the upper foyer. All food donations are to be brought to church by November 21st. Thank you for blessing our community!

The Deacons' wives will be collecting new or clean, gently used toys and children's items for distribution at December's Christ's Cupboard (Saturday, December 18). This allows folks to have gifts for the children in their lives that they may not otherwise be able to afford. There will be a box by the Food Pantry closet in the Fellowship Hall beginning next Sunday, November 7 in which to place your donation. Also welcome is holiday gift wrap so we may give to the Christ's Cupboard recipients to take home and wrap their gifts. Thank you in advance!

FAMILY ORNAMENT EXCHANGE - It's time to put on your thinking caps, get out the craft box, gather your family and create a very special ornament for our annual Family Ornament Exchange! We hope to have many "families" participating - whether there are 10 people under your roof or you live by yourself, please join in this wonderful Providence tradition.
