Lord's Day Worship

June 4, 2023

Call to Worship

Psalm 95:1-5

Come, let us sing for joy to the Lord; let us shout aloud to the Rock of our salvation. Let us come before him with thanksgiving and extol him with music and song. For the Lord is the great God, the great King above all gods. In his hand are the depths of the earth, and the mountain peaks belong to him. The sea is his, for he made it, and his hands formed the dry land.

We Come O Christ to You

Hymn #181

Ephesians 3:17b-19

And I pray that you, being rooted and established in love, may have power, together with all the Lord's holy people, to grasp how wide and long and high and deep is the love of Christ, and to know this love that surpasses knowledge—that you may be filled to the measure of all the fullness of God.

Opening Prayer

Confessing Our Sins Together

Psalm 2

Father, we confess with our lips the blessedness of taking refuge in you, but our lives proclaim a different story. We sing the wonders of your love, but in our hearts we grumble and complain about your perfect law, which revives our soul. We declare that you are wise and worthy, but instead of resting in you, we are discontent with the present and fearful for the future, wishing for more than your good provision. Father, forgive us.

Jesus, thank you for being a perfect King, who sacrificed yourself to provide for your people. You gave up your inheritance from eternity to dwell among us in the poverty and filth of this world, enduring derision from the people you created, and dying for our sin. You are worthy of all our praise and worship and honor.

Holy Spirit, fill our hearts with such a love for Jesus, that long to serve Him now and forever. In His name we pray, amen.

Rejoicing in Our Forgiveness

Isaiah 53:3-5

He was despised and rejected by mankind, a man of suffering, and familiar with pain. Like one from whom people hide their faces he was despised, and we held him in low esteem. Surely he took up our pain and bore our suffering, yet we considered him punished by God, stricken by him, and afflicted. But he was pierced for our transgressions, he was crushed for our iniquities; the punishment that brought us peace was on him, and by his wounds we are healed.

Scripture Reading

Mark 8. 27-30 (English Standard Version)

²⁷ And Jesus went on with his disciples to the villages of Caesarea Philippi. And on the way he asked his disciples, “Who do people say that I am?” ²⁸ And they told him, “John the Baptist; and others say, Elijah; and others, one of the prophets.” ²⁹ And he asked them, “But who do you say that I am?” Peter answered him, “You are the Christ.” ³⁰ And he strictly charged them to tell no one about him.

And you will be helping them bring hope, help, and healing to mothers and families.

In 2022 Crossroads had over 500 client visits. Many of these clients elect to participate in the "Earn While You Learn" program that helps prepare them for parenthood and teaches them important life skills. In so doing, they earn "Crossroads Dollars" that they can spend at our store for baby clothes, diapers, and many other practical items.

Last year alone, 20 of their clients placed their hope and trust in Jesus Christ for salvation.

Crossroads also saw 18 babies welcomed into the world.

This is your opportunity to have hands-on involvement in a project to help save the lives of unborn children and make an eternal difference in their mothers' lives.

Two opportunities to support Crossroads Pregnancy Care. Please read both sides of this flyer!

Cash for Gift Cards
To bless
Clients of the CPC

In June and December we have the opportunity to bless the clients of Crossroads Pregnancy Care with a donation of $10 WAWA or Giant gift cards. They will be given to the clients in need of food or gas money. Collection will be each Sunday in June. Please place an envelope of cash only marked with "CPC Gift Card" in the collection plate or give to Sue Wilsey.

I will purchase all gift cards and donate to CPC beginning of July.

Thank you for your generosity in assisting the clients of CPC.
